1.1 > ① The leadership process →

10.13.
2026

Leadership leadership is a process → a complex & dynamic exchange relationship built over time between leader & follower & between leader- and the group of followers →

↳ who depend on each other to attain a mutually desired goal.

→ The leader- are people who take charge or guide the activities of others.

They are seen as the focus or orchastrator of group activities y →

The people who set the tone of the group → so that it can move forward to attain its goals leaders provide the group with what is required to ~~fulfill~~ fulfill its maintenance & ↳ task - related needs →

The Follower - is not a passive player in the leadership process.

" The follower is the most critical factor in any leadership event.

It is the follower → who perceives the situation & comes to define the needs that the leader must fulfill.

→ the follower who rejects leadership / accepts by surrendering his/her power